Failure to comply with any part of this section may invalidate a claim. Your policy excess may increase whilst your property is empty or unoccupied.

EXCESSES

Please refer to certificate and statement of fact for excesses that apply to your policy. Your excess may differ if the property becomes empty or unoccupied, or if any of the facts which the policy is based on changes during the policy term.

YOUR CANCELLATION RIGHTS

You are entitled to cancel your insurance policy at any stage during the policy term. You are entitled to a period of 14 days, from inception, in which to consider the content of your insurance policy, and the extent of the cover therein. Cancellation of your policy within these 14 days is therefore subject to a full refund.

Provided that there have been:

- No claims made under the policy for which we have made a payment;
- No claims made under the policy which are still under consideration;
- No incident likely to give rise to a claim but is yet to be reported to us.

Cancellation after 14 days will be subject to the normal terms and conditions of the policy wording, and will be refunded on a proportionate basis, less 15% of the total cost of the insurance premium.

If a claim has been submitted or there has been any incident likely to give rise to a claim during the current period of insurance, no refund for the unexpired portion of the premium will be given.
